JUDGING CRITERIA

- Creativity and Originality: The level of creativity and originality displayed in the styling is the most important factor.

- Theme Interpretation: Participants will be judged on their ability to interpret and implement the specified theme or concept into their styling.

- Attention to Detail: Attention to detail in the entire style, including garment fit, accessorising, and color and texture coordination.

- Coherence and cohesion: There should be a sense of coherence and cohesion in the styling. The compositions picked should compliment one another and form a harmonious and well-balanced ensemble.

- Storytelling ability: The ability to tell an engaging fashion story or narrative. The whole appearance should elicit emotions and communicate a clear message to the viewer.

- Hair and Makeup: Hairstyles and makeup should complement the overall fashion and be consistent with the concept.

- Model Presentation: It is critical for the model to display and convey the styling with confidence and poise.
